Dundas County Players Are Back! - Supporting the New Dundas Manor

This month, the Dundas County Players are presenting three plays for the price of one! Even better, proceeds from one of the evening performances will support the new Dundas Manor!

The shows will take the stage at the Old Town Hall in Winchester on November 15, 16 and 17 and 22, 23 and 24 at 7:30 pm. The three plays are Home Child, How to Survive Being in a Shakespeare Play and Last Tango in Little Winchester.

Proceeds from the November 16th performance will help build the new Dundas Manor. "We are so grateful that the Dundas County Players have chosen to support the new Dundas Manor once again," says Justine Plummer, Manager of Direct Mail & Events. "Earlier this year, this talented team raised close to $2,000 for the campaign. We hope everyone will come to an evening at the theatre and help raise even more."

Tickets are just $20 for adults and $10 for those under 18. If you'd like tickets for the November 16th performance, please call Justine Plummer at 613-774-2422 ext. 6172 or email jplummer@wdmh.on.ca. You can also purchase tickets online at www.dcplayers.ca.

For more details about the Dundas Manor campaign, please visit www.dundasmanordream.ca or contact the WDMH Foundation team at 613-774-2422 ext. 6162 or 6169. If you would like to host a community event to benefit the new Dundas Manor, please reach out to Justine at 613-774-2422 ext. 6172 or jplummer@wdmh.on.ca. Thank you for your support!

2024 Dundas County Players presents

AN EVENING OF ONE-ACTS

Enjoy 3 plays for the price of 1!

Home Child

by Laura Teasdale

Directed by Lauren Casselman

A historical drama based on the true life story of a British Home Child in Canada.

How to Survive Being in a Shakespeare Play

by Don Zolidis

Produced by special arrangements with Stage Partners

(www.yourstagepartners.com)

A comedy directed by MT Robinson

Imagine you're cast in a Shakespeare play and chances are you are going to DIE. The Bard is out for blood but this play is here to stop him.

Last Tango in Little Winchester

by David Tristram

Presented by arrangement with Concord Theatricals Inc.

Directed by Erik Hutten

Membership and audiences are dwindling...what is an amateur drama group to do? They decide to take a risk and put on a somewhat risqué play.

Nov. 15, 7:30 p.m.
