Whodunnit?!

Find out at the Iroquois-Matilda Lions Club Murder Mystery Dinner!

The creative folks at the Iroquois-Matilda Lions Club are at it again – having fun and raising funds for the new Dundas Manor.

On March 16th, the club is hosting a Murder Mystery Dinner at Matilda Hall and it promises to be a great night. The evening will include a dinner of Ireland's favourite dishes provided by Catered Affairs followed by "The Good, The Bad and The Ridiculous" ©, a play written by Laurie McRae-Bingley. Get your tickets from a club member, at Mustard's Variety, H&I Supply or Cook's Corner. Proceeds will support both Dundas Manor and the House of Lazarus Back Pack Program.

"Lions are all about kindness! 'We serve' isn't just a catchy motto, it's the core of our existence," explains Lion Maureen Mulcair. "We're a team who believes a little love can go a long way. Whether we're volunteering or rallying for a good cause, we know that our teamwork can make the world a better place. We're super excited about the New Dundas Manor - it's the perfect way to keep families together and bring a smile to our community!"

"We are so grateful to the Iroquois-Matilda Lions Club for hosting this fundraiser," notes Campaign Assistant Cindy Ault Peters. "We love it when our donors approach us with fun, community-focused events that also help to raise much-needed dollars for the campaign. It's going to be a fun night!"
