Sherry's in Williamsburg Adds to the Magic!

It's amazing how little things add up!

Over the past few months, there has been a donation bin at Sherry's Store in Williamsburg - front and centre so customers couldn't miss it. Owner Sherry Mowat and her daughter Kayla Helliker asked customers to donate their spare change to help build the new Dundas Manor. And they did!

"We have a great community and they stepped up for a great cause," says Sherry.

But things didn't stop there. Sherry chose to match everything donated by her customers. And the grand total is $1,624!

"Sherry's store is known for great coffee, delicious pastries, and anything else you might need when driving by," notes WDMH Foundation team member Cindy Ault Peters. "Sherry and her team are also known for helping out. They have been supporting the Dundas Manor campaign since its launch and we are so grateful to Sherry, Kayla and their customers!"
